THEATRE.-Mr. HACKETT closed his brief engagement at the Gaiety. Saturday night, impersonating the part of Sir John Falstaff, in the comedy of "The Merry Wives of Windsor." The audience was numerous, and highly delighted with the performance. At the close rising to-day. Mr. HACKETT was called for. He appeared and returned thanks in an appropriate little speech. Mrs. Menken was also called out. We learn that with the performance Saturday night, her connection with the Gaiety ceases. During her brief sojourn here, she has developed considerable ability as an actress, and that she has much talent is accorded to her by all. It is within her power to attain an eminent position, if she but perseveres faithfully, and lets nothing interfere with a laudable ambition to become distinguished. In addition to her fine histrionic ability, she wields a ready and facile pen. To her intellectual, are added charming physical gifts. All combined ought to secure for her a ready entrance into the higher walks of the drama, if she be but true to them. We trust she may soon find a profitable engagement elsewhere, and enter zealously on the path to distinc-

SAM IS HIMSELF AGAIN.—The many patrons of our clever friend, SAM PRITCHETT, will be pleased to learn of his arrival home from a business tour to the Eastern cities, where he has purchased an extensive and elegant assortment of spring and summer goods, which he is now in daily receipt of. In a community where Sam is so well known, it is useless for us to indulge in a single word of commendation as to his ability to please all who may favor him with their patronage.

But believe me, I am proud and happy to feel that my caracst efforts have merited that which fully repays all toil and exertion-the cheering letter before me.

The amount of the ordinary expenses for the year 1857, is sixteen thousand and ninetysix dollars and twenty cents; which shows a balance in favor of the Water Works of nine thousand four hundred and fifty-three dollars and eighty cents. The amount of Water tax for the six months ending on the 1st July n : is twelve thousand three hundred and thirty dollars. The number of subscribers is twelve hundred and forty eight, among which are caumerated twenty-two steam-engines, two railroad depots, three public bath-houses, six hotels, fifteen boarding-houses, one gashouse, and two colleges. The number of connections for the year 1857 is one hundred and five. There are seventy-three fire-plugs, all in good working order.

Your Superintendent would farther report the small Engine at the Water Works in good running order. The large Engine and pumps are also in good order, with a good supply of fuel. It is very important that your honora-ble body should take some decisive steps with regard to the reservoirs, as you are aware of their present condition.

All of which is respectfully submitted, JOHN M. SEABURY. Feb. 25, 1858. Feb. 25, 1858. S. N. W. W.

Good Advice. Medical Science.

The history of "HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS," the most remarkable Medicine of the day, and the many cures that have been performed with it in cases of Licer Complaint, Dyspepria, Nervous Debility; and diseases arising from a disordered liver or stomach, plaes it among the most astonishing discoveries that has taken place in the medical world. The diseases to which these Bitters are applicable are so universal that there are but few of our friends who may not test their virtues in their own families or circle of acquaintances, and prove to their own satisfaction that there is at least one remedy among the many advertised a fact that, in the minds of many persons, a prejudice exists against what are called Patent Medicines; but why should this prevent you resorting to an article that has such an array of testimony to support it as Hoofland's German Bitters? Physicians prescribe it. why should you discard it? Judges, usually considered men of talent, have and do use it in their own families. Why should you reject it? Clergymen and those the most eminent, take it, why should not you? Let not your prejudice usurp your reason, to the everlasting injury of your health; if you are sick and require a medicine try these Bitters. These Bitters are prepared and sold by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, Pa., and by druggists and store-keepers in every town and vil lage in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and S America, at 75 cents per bottle.
